

HOPE TO REACH AGREEMENT ON RUSS QUESTION

Concrete Proposal To Be Formulated Today

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Jan. 21.—The supreme council of the great powers hopes to formulate a concrete proposal on Russia at tomorrow's meeting.

This was the definite official announcement of the communique issued tonight after the council had been considering the Russian situation continuously for the last two days.

It can be added that while this concrete proposal was not finally decided and reduced to writing its main features were agreed upon in principle. The members came from the session, however, feeling there was no sovereign remedy insuring a certain cure for the difficult and dangerous situation and that it would be desirable to embody several lines of action in the proposal.

The first effect of this proposal will be that neither Sergius Sazonov, the Russian minister of foreign affairs before the revolution nor any soviet agents will come to Paris as exponents of Russian affairs, but that some form of inquiry or investigation of political conditions in Russia will be made without considering the presence in Paris of the adherents of either side of the question at issue.

Statesmen Differ. This determination is largely the result of a strong sentiment in some quarters against having any direct dealings with the Bolsheviks.

Early indications were that Premier Lloyd George's proposal to M. Pichon, the French foreign minister, would again take form in having Soviet agents come here and three names of prominent men set as emissaries. This is now said to be definitely superseded by a plan of inquiry or investigation without involving the presence of Soviet agents.

The Danish minister to Russia, Harold Schavenius, made a statement before the executive session of the council today on conditions in Russia which also had a strong influence in determining that soviet representatives should not come to Paris. He was the last of the ministers to leave Petrograd and today he emphasized the futility of trying to conduct any intercourse with the soviet leaders.

He read an article written by one of the Soviet chiefs declaring that Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson were too conservative and reactionary for the soviets to deal with. He also gave exact data on the Bolshevik forces showing that they do not exceed 90,000 armed men, the remainder being without arms or ammunition, clothing or shoes. He declared also that the red army was largely recruited from the famished peasants who took this means to obtain food and pay the soviets seemed able to give them.

BOLSHEVISTS PLAN TO STIR UP ASIA

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Via Montreal.—The Bolshevik government for a long time has been organizing an extensive propaganda for revolutions in China, India and Persia and is now ready as soon as the opportunity offers to send agents with large sums of money to stir up trouble throughout Asia, according to reliable advices received here.

A great obstacle facing the revolutionary plans of the Bolsheviks is the existence of the army of the Omsk government which at present effectively bars the way to Asia by way of the Ural front. The most recent information received from British headquarters shows that Bolshevism is spreading in the Ukraine. The new Ukraine directorate, with headquarters at Kiev is a weak organization without any decided policy. Its attitude toward the Bolsheviks is most certain and there is a current opinion here that the directorate favors an agreement with the Bolsheviks.

CONSIDER AFTER THE WAR PROBLEMS

New York, Jan. 21.—After the war problems of the American clothing industry were considered here today by the National Association of Clothiers which opened its 23rd annual convention. A committee was appointed to go to Washington to confer with a congressional committee regarding the luxury tax of proposed revenue legislation. It was forecast that because of surplus amount of cloth on hand men's coats would be double breasted this spring.

PTOMAIN POISON RESULTS IN TWO DEATHS

Forrest City, Ill., Jan. 21.—Canned salmon eaten at a birthday celebration last Sunday, today caused the death of H. T. Wheeler and his son Charles. A coroner's jury declared that death was caused by ptomaine poisoning.

Reynolds Gives Reasons for U. S. Control of Wires

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Edward Reynolds of New York, who recently was relieved of his duties as vice-president and general manager of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company by Postmaster General Burleson told the house postoffice committee today that the only excuse for the government retaining control over telephone and telegraph companies was "to increase telephone rates and to finance crippled telephone companies."

Mr. Reynolds appeared to oppose the administration measure contemplating extension of the period of control and possible government purchase of the wires. Protests against the legislation also were filed with the committee by several state public utility commissions.

Mr. Reynolds said to "utilize the government control for increasing telephone as now is being done by the postmaster general is assuming authority that congress did not confer upon the postmaster general and declared that efforts are being made to increase telegraph charges."

Mr. Burleson's operating committee consisting of a Western Union man, two Bell telephone men and one independent telephone man, the witness declared "has within the last few days tried to get the Postal company to agree to increased telegraph rates and the Postal company has refused. If the government will turn back at once the Postal telegraph lines, we will continue to carry on telegraph business at present rates."

The witness accused the postmaster general, Theodore N. Vail, and Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union company of seeking to "consolidate all telegraph, telephone and possibly cable lines into one huge monopoly," and said there is no good reason why all the lines should not be turned back at once and the loss now sustained by the government in their operation stopped.

Methodists Start Big Campaign for $115,000,000

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Chicago sounded the keynote of the Methodist Episcopal church's plan for a missionary and educational campaign which contemplates raising a fund of $115,000,000 in five years when in address before the joint centenary committee of the denomination he said:

"It is a program which contemplates putting all government and all diplomacy the world around on an open Christian basis of righteousness, open and square dealing and even justice for high and low, rich and poor. It proposes that instead of the strong exploiting the weak, they shall recognize the debt of strength to weakness and each one find his happiness in the happiness of his highest good in the good of all. It proposes that we give a new meaning to citizenship in America, in China, in India and in the Isles of the sea."

"This program proposes hospitals where there never have been hospitals. It proposes better houses, better schools where there have been inferior schools or none at all. It proposes that as we increase the love of God burn up the dross of base desires in the individual soul we shall now extend the spirit of Christ to all realms of human action."

"It is a gratifying and hopeful fact that in opening this great world program convention we can, for the first time in the world's history make the appeal of the Christian church to a prospective sober world. The nation has gone dry. This victory of the moral and Christian forces of the nation puts us under new obligations to meet enlarged opportunities with an enlarged program."

Rev. Fred B. Fisher of New York made a special plea for the education of the masses of India, China and Russia.

Divided Into Three Classes Paul L. Vogt, superintendent of the department of rural work, board of home mission and church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church divided the work under his direction into three classes.

First: Rural churches once prosperous, now must either be abandoned or assisted thru missionary support because the transient tenant population is either unable or unwilling to support community interests.

Second: The American population is moving to cities and many rural churches will have to be abandoned unless some program is adopted which will provide for the Americanization of the foreign born farmers.

Third: Control of community institutions by the church. Bishop William P. McDowell of Washington, D. C., said new ideas were needed to meet enlarged conditions after the war. He said the world now constituted the church's parish.

ARMOUR DENIES HIS COMPANY MADE BIG PROFITS

Spends Four Hours Before House Commerce Committee

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—J. Ogden Armour of Chicago, president of Armour & Co., spent more than four hours today before the house interstate commerce committee reading a prepared statement opposing government regulation of the meat packing industry and in answering questions of members of the committee. His examination will be continued tomorrow.

Mr. Armour denied that his company makes excessive profits, declaring the return last year on $861,000,000 worth of business was less than two cents on every dollar of sales, and said he was perfectly willing to relinquish his holdings to the government upon being allowed at a just compensation. He warned, however, that government ownership "implies red tape and restrictions which cannot help but add to the cost of the service."

Charges of the federal trade commission of collusion among the five big packing firms to control prices were denied categorically by Mr. Armour, who also insisted that there was keen competition between the so-called "big five" in buying as well as marketing.

Discusses High Prices. Discussing the increased prices of meats, Mr. Armour said the reason why bacon now costs 70 cents a pound against 24 and 29 cents four years ago could be readily understood. Prices of live hogs had increased 245 per cent in that time, he declared while costs of labor and fuel had doubled. The market prices of by products had not increased in the same ratio as live hogs because shoes, especially as you control such quantities of hides? And why can't you retail those shoes to the public? If you can make lard compound from cottonseed why can't you go into the business of raising cotton and spinning the staple?"

"Theoretically you are right, practically you are wrong in assuming that we can do all those things," the witness replied.

AGREE TO FORM AN INTERNATIONAL UNION

LONDON, Jan. 21.—An adjourned conference of leaders of British labor with Samuel Gompers and other American Labor delegates now in England has reached an agreement to form a nucleus for an international trades union congress. A committee of five will be appointed to report British labor at the new congress and to aid in organizing it. Mr. Gompers will confer with the British committee in the few days to formulate plans for the congress and to select an early date for the meeting in order that the congress may meet simultaneously with the peace conference.

Mr. Gompers and the other American delegates will go to Paris tomorrow where Mr. Gompers said tonight it is hoped to discuss the new movement with French labor leaders in advance of the next meeting with the British committee.

WILL CABLES BE GIVEN BACK TO GERMANY?

Paris, Jan. 21.—Are the German Trans-Atlantic cables to be given back to Germany? The Matin asks this question in today's issue. It points out that the two cables were cut four hours after Great Britain's declaration of war by the British cruiser close to Fayal in the Azores. The cables became prizes of war, Great Britain taking one and France the other. Great Britain used hers in conjunction with her own cable lines to Canada, while France made no use of her line which she was allotted.

COOMBS TRADES PLAYERS

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—Jack Coombs, manager of the Philadelphia National League club tonight announced that Thord Baseman, pitcher Dixie Davis and Catcher Dillhofer had been traded to the St. Louis Nationals for infielder Douglas Baird, pitcher Gene Packard and infielder J. E. Stewart. There was no money consideration.

25 Prisoners Escape From Rock Island Jail

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Jan. 21.—By shooting John Sexton, a turnkey, and overpowering two guards, between 20 and 25 prisoners escaped from the county jail tonight. Fourteen of the men who escaped are convicts from the Joliet penitentiary who until recently have been paroled and working at the United States arsenal here. They were taken in custody several days ago for violating the provisions of their parole.

Tonight's jail delivery followed an unsuccessful attempt of a number of prisoners to escape three weeks ago and is the culmination of a wave of crime which has swept the city and vicinity for six weeks. Six hundred paroled convicts from the Joliet penitentiary had been employed in Rock Island manufacturing plants until the murder of Sheriff Jacob Wigers by a number of bandits nearly two months ago when a majority of the convicts were returned to prison.

Among the criminals who escaped from jail tonight is Arthur Miller, alias James Ellsworth, confessed murderer of Jacob Schaul, a Rock Island business man.

Tonight the prisoners managed to escape from their cells and were creeping toward the jail door when the guards discovered them and a battle ensued. The turnkey was shot and the two guards beaten and trampled upon. The prisoners then forced open the door leading to the living quarters of Sheriff John Miller and swarming thru the dining room went to an unbarred window, raising it and climbed out into the darkness and escaped.

Sheriff Miller gave the alarm and the city was searched for the men but no trace of them was found. Messages were sent to nearby cities to watch for the fleeing convicts.

The wounds of John Sexton, the turnkey, are said not to be dangerous.

The Chicago detective bureau was notified of the jail delivery. According to reports received by Sheriff Miller shortly after midnight the escaped prisoners had stolen three automobiles after fleeing from jail and are believed to have started for Chicago. An unverified report received here stated that seven of the convicts had been captured a short distance east of here. The convicts are said to include murderers, holdup men and burglars, a majority of them from Chicago, according to Sheriff Miller.

Famous U.S. Fighting Units Is Exonerated Ordered Home By Grand Jury

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The homecoming of American fighting units which had the opportunity to distinguish themselves in action soon will begin.

The war department announced today three famous national guard divisions—the twenty-seventh (New York)—had been ordered to prepare for embarkation. There was no information as to when the divisions would start from French ports.

Divisions having a distinguished fighting record and others having a distinctive local identity in the United States will be kept together after their return from France until they can be paraded at home and receive the welcome that the people are anxious to bestow upon them. No definite plans as to the three divisions designated for early return have been made here.

Other Divisions. Other divisions which will be paraded on their return are the 26th (New England) and the 42nd (Rainbow). Secretary Baker indicated today that he had practically determined to have the Rainbow division which is composed of troops from nearly all states, march in review both in New York City and in Washington. The 26th probably will parade in Boston.

The 27th and the 30th divisions were commended by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander-in-chief whose official report to the close of the war gave to these American troops, then serving with the British fourth army, credit for breaking the Hindenburg line in Flanders.

The 37th saw its first duty in the Baccarat region in July but in October joined the combined allied thrust in Flanders and had reached the east bank of the Scheldt the day before the armistice was signed. The division was officially commended by the French commander of the army to which it was attached in this fighting.

WILSON'S FAMINE BILL TARGET IN SENATE TUESDAY

Final Vote On Measure Will Be Reached Thursday

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Growing opposition and protracted debate covering a variety of subjects again prevented the senate from reaching a vote today on the bill appropriating $100,000,000 asked by President Wilson for famine relief in Europe. Several more senators plan to speak tomorrow and some members said tonight passage of the measure before Thursday was improbable. Vigorous addresses in opposition to the appropriation were made today by Senators Harding of Ohio, Johnson of California, Poindestor of Washington and other Republicans and by Senator Hardwick of Georgia, Democrat, while those speaking for the bill included Senators Hollis of New Hampshire, Democrat, and Weeks of Massachusetts, who is one of the few Republican senators who thus far have given the measure support in debate.

In the course of his address, Senator Weeks criticized many governmental activities. A definite development of the opposition was introduction of an amendment by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, Republican, proposing that administration of the $100,000,000 fund be placed in the hands of a commission of three members to be named by the president subject to confirmation by the senate and to be responsible to congress. Action on the amendment went over. Urging action to meet economic conditions in this country, Senator Harding criticized the administration for failure to present a reconstruction program and declared the country was "drifting to chaos."

Assails President. He asserted that President Wilson's policies have been largely responsible for the spread of Bolshevism in Europe and declared that the statement that this country entered the war for democracy has "been a lie from the beginning."

Senator Harding said the world cannot be stabilized by charity and told the senate if he voted for the bill it would be his last vote for a measure on the plea of "war necessity."

Demonstrations by unemployed, in which men in uniform have participated were pointed to by Senator Johnson of California, as showing the need for measures to meet reconstruction conditions at home. He said the nation's first duty is to American military men and declared that the proposed appropriation was for the benefit of the packers who have meat to sell. Senator Poindestor said the appropriation was an unconstitutional burden upon taxpayers and unwarranted. He also criticized Mr. Hoover, declared opposition to President Wilson's plan for a league of nations and joined in demands for measures to benefit discharged soldiers and sailors.

Mr. Hoover was defended by Senator Hollis and also by Senator Weeks who declared that unless senate debate was curtailed the objects of the bill's charity would starve before the measure was enacted.

PARIS PAPER SUMS UP RUSSIAN SITUATION

PARIS, Jan. 21.—The attitude of the various powers towards Russia is summed up today by L'Information, which states that the situation stands as follows:

France and Italy heretofore have been for intervention on condition that the allies were unanimous. The British, through Premier Lloyd George has expressed a desire to see intervention limited to the coasts of the Caspian Sea, leaving to Russia the adjustment of her own affairs in the interior.

President Wilson seems to agree with the latter conception, and to be still hoping to see the Bolsheviks in the process of evolution, establish a regime less resembling an anarchical one. Japan has not yet agreed to consider the possibility of promoting the general she has undertaken in Siberia.

COMMISSION CONFERS WITH AUSTRIANS

Paris, Jan. 21.—The American commission headed by Prof. A. C. Coolidge which has been in Budapest for four days has conferred with politicians of all parties, newspaper editors and delegations from territory occupied by the Rumanians and Czechoslovaks concerning the situation in Hungary, according to a special despatch from Budapest. The members of the mission had a conference with Joseph Hapsburg, the former archduke at the palace in Budapest.

Secretary Lane Pays Tribute To Col. Roosevelt

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—A tribute to Theodore Roosevelt by Secretary Lane was adopted by the house pensions committee today as a part of its favorable report on a bill, which already has passed the senate granting an annual pension of $5,000 to Mrs. Roosevelt. Secretary Lane wrote the committee that congress had set precedents by granting pensions to the widows of Presidents Polk, Tyler, Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley.

The committee unanimously voted a favorable report found that the secretary's letter constituted one of the most beautiful, fair and just tributes to Mr. Roosevelt's life and character. It follows:

The Tribute. "The impression that Theodore Roosevelt's personality has made upon the world does not need emphasis. Whatever his fame as a statesman it can never out-run his fame as a man. However widely men may differ from him in matters of national policy this thing men in their hearts would all wish, that their sons might have within them the spirit, the will, the strength, the manliness, the Americanism of Roosevelt. He was made of that rugged and heroic stuff with which legend delights to play. The Ilys and sagas and illads have been woven about men of his mold. We may surely expect to see developed in Roosevelt legend a body of tales that will exalt the physical power and endurance of the man and the boldness of his spirit, his robust capacity for blunt speech and his hearty comradeship, his live interests in all things living—these will make our boys for the long future proud that they are of his race and his country. And no surer fame than this can come to any man—his fame in the hearts of the boys of his land as one whose doings and sayings they would wish to make their own."

Thousands Of Unemployed In United States

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Reports from twenty-one cities showing more than 125,000 unemployed, were submitted to the house immigration committee today by Frank Morrison, Secretary of Labor in support of his contention that there will be bread lines in every industrial center before May 1. Mr. Morrison appeared in support of legislation to restrict immigration.

The reports submitted today were in addition to those from thirty cities given to the committee last Thursday by Mr. Morrison and showed Detroit leads with 50,000 unemployed. Only three cities, Charleston, S. C., Salem, Ore., and Port Houston, Texas, were reported as having no unemployment, Mr. Morrison said.

A report from Seattle, Wash., said it was impossible to give the approximate number of unemployed there but that there were thousands and that the number was increasing daily. The situation was becoming so menacing it was stated, that government intervention might soon be necessary.

Mr. Morrison read a letter from William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, stating that the existing unrest among the laboring classes is being accentuated by employers who are increasing the number of hours a day the employees have to work and lowering wages. The letter also said that several companies working under awards of the war labor board have served notice that as far as they were concerned the war ended the day the armistice was signed and that the awards no longer were in effect.

Mr. Morrison said two things should be done by congress: First—Legislation providing for the employment of returning soldiers be passed. Second—That immigration be stopped until normal times are again reached.

WILL PAY ONLY ACTUAL COST

Washington, Jan. 21.—The United States will pay the British government actual cost for transportation of American soldiers overseas in British vessels, Col. Battison of the army embarkation bureau told the house military committee today that General Hines, head of the bureau would leave for London in a few days to determine the amount.

NATIONAL BANK DEPOSITS REACH NEW HIGH RECORDS

Banking Power of U. S. 7 Times Greater Than In 1890

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Despite tremendous war burdens, national banks grew and prospered last year their resources, earnings and deposits establishing new high records according to the annual report of John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency. The report made public today said the success of the financial management of the war was largely due to the conservative principles maintained by the banks and the federal reserve system and the efficient direction of the individual institutions. It was the last report of Mr. Williams in his present term which expires Feb. 2. It covered the year ending Oct. 31, 1918 and said that half the $17,000,000,000 of liberty bonds marketed up to that date were sold thru the national banks, yet the banks' deposits increased nearly two billion dollars. Interest rates were kept low and stable, in spite of a big demand for credit from many sources. Mr. Williams said, and there were only two failures during the fiscal year. These are outstanding situations which should make the nation proud of its national banking system, the comptroller declared.

"A financial catastrophe," which would have seriously affected banks and business in general last year was averted," said Mr. Williams, by the government taking over of the railroads.

"The banking power of the United States today is estimated to be seven times greater than in 1890," said the report.

Failures Few.

Discussing failures of national banks, the comptroller contrasted present conditions with those of the panic of 1893, when 153 national banks, with liabilities of more than $80,000,000 suspended. In the first year of the war on the other hand there were only four national bank suspensions, representing liabilities of about $800,000.

An insurance premium of 30 per million dollars of deposits would be sufficient to guarantee the deposits of all national banks against loss, provided the percentage of loss shown in the last four and a half years is maintained, said the report, commenting on the recommendation for government guarantee of deposits of $5,000 or less. This legislation, it was declared would bring many millions of dollars from their hiding places.

The comptroller renewed many of his former recommendations for legislation including the following:

To prevent officers of banks from borrowing from their own institutions.

The limit direct and indirect loans to one individual firm or corporation.

To provide for removal of directors guilty of persistent violations of the national bank act.

To authorize national banks to establish branches.

To provide for rotations and vacations for bookkeepers.

EXTRA SESSION PROBABLE

Washington, Jan. 21.—Republican Leader Mann reminded the house today that only four of the fourteen appropriation measures had been passed in the first seven weeks of the short session and that only six weeks remained for passage of supply bill and other legislation.

"Now I do not know," said Representative Mann, "whether the president has directed the Democratic side of the house to force an extra session of congress or not, but it looks as though he had."

ASK $200,000 FOR VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Washington, Jan. 21.—An appropriation of $200,000 for use in developing vocational education in mining, textiles, railroad, shipbuilding, industrial designing, merchant marine service and employment managers was asked of congress today by the federal board of vocational education.

STREET CAR COMPANY TROUBLES.

In Memphis, Tenn., the street car company has gone into the hands of a receiver. The company in St. Louis has just been granted an increase in fares and in other cities there is a clamor for higher fares. It is predicted that in smaller cities the time is not far distant when street cars will run only in the early morning hours, at noon and at the supper hour, for the service does not pay during the rest of the day.

The time was when investments in street car companies were accounted among the best and safest. That day is gone, largely as the result of the increased automobile travel. The street car companies with large investments are certainly facing difficult problems of operation and finance.

householder is now using little more than half as much fuel as at the same time a year ago. It is a money saving that no one regrets and there are plenty of good places to put the savings.

Much of the war material purchased by the government was at excessive prices and was procured too late to be of use. Now this material must be sold at after-war prices and a double loss will accrue to the government which the taxpayers must pay. But there will be little complaining on this account, since the war was won and that was the great stake for which the American people were playing.

FOR RELIEF WORK.

Next Monday a drive is to be raised through Illinois for the raising of a fund of $30,000,000 for relief work in the near east—that is, in Armenia, Syria, and Persia. This state's share is $30,000,000 and reports received from abroad show how greatly the money is needed. There is almost unparalleled distress among the peoples mentioned and unless the money is given, thousands upon thousands of them must die from starvation.

BIG SUM FOR PUBLIC WORKS.

The campaign for pushing public work in the effort to furnish employment is meeting with success. Reports from 28 states, compiled by the state council of defense show that already nearly $59,000,000 worth of expenditures have been planned. This sum includes the work planned for roads, canals, reclamation and erection of public buildings. In addition to all this work many new projects will doubtless be provided for by the legislatures of forty different states that have convened this month.

IN RELAYS.

The smaller cities of the state are being asked to send their firemen to Chicago in relays for a two months' course of instruction by expert fire fighters. The Underwriters prevention bureau has advocated this plan, believing that great efficiency will result from the down state fire fighters.

Just how Jacksonville with its fire fighting force of four men, is to send them to Chicago in relays has not yet been determined.

THRIFT AND FRUGALITY.

Benjamin Franklin in "Poor Richard's Almanac," penned so many years ago, gave some very wholesome advice about thrift and frugality. That is no doubt the reason that the 215th anniversary of his birth, which falls this week, is to be celebrated nationally as Thrift day. The plan has been outlined for general observance by the savings division of the U. S. treasury department. On this date the 1919 campaign for Thrift stamps will formally begin. As already indicated, the treasury department is planning this year to bring about not only the sale of Thrift stamps and certificates, but also to carry on an extensive educational campaign for habits of thrift.

"PUT JACKSONVILLE ON ITS FEET"

There is considerable talk these days about possible candidates for aldermen and mayor of Jacksonville at the primary to be held in March, but thus far the number of candidates is not as large as has been anticipated. In order to make some organized effort toward the securing of acceptable candidates, one well known Jacksonville citizen has suggested a mass meeting to be held at the court house. His idea would be to have such a mass meeting held in the course of the next two weeks and at the time to present the exact facts about the city's financial condition and the revenue sum that will be available for this year.

When these facts are fully understood there is no question about the public understanding that the next mayor and council of Jacksonville will face a very serious and difficult situation. There is no question, either, that the public will understand that this is a time when there is a definite demand for services from citizens who are willing to make personal sacrifice for the benefit of their own city—willing to co-operate in an effort to once more "put Jacksonville on its feet."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Putting it off.
If things were always done just in the nick of time, we all would have more fun, there'd be less grief and crime. "When comes tomorrow's dawn," I hear the voice talk, "I'll sprinkle ashes on that dead-blamed icy walk. I know you fret and chafe, because I put it off. I know it isn't safe for any guy, or toff. But I am tired to-night, I have no strength or pep, my headache is a fright, I will not stir a step. I labored in the morn', thruout the long sad day, and I've a broken heart and whiskers turning gray. My head's of toll are thru, and here I sit and rock. I am too tired to strew cheap ashes on the walk." Meantime some worthy gent goes toiling up the street; on urgent errand bent, he wields his trenchant feet. He strikes the glary walk where ashes are not strewed, then falls around a block beneath the wintry moon. His tuckers and his bibs are spoiled, that once were fine; he's caved in all his ribs, and spoiled a useful spine. And when he's borne away upon a cellar door, I hear that vater say, while he walks the floor, "Ah, me, and eke ah, you! My soul is stained with crime. Why did I fail to strew the ashes there in time? His tears are all in vain, struck is the hour of fate; he would be safe and sane, when it is just too late!"

MADE ADDRESS AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Dr. S. H. Dana made an address to the students of Illinois college yesterday at the chapel hour which was greatly appreciated. Dr. Dana has in past years been a frequent visitor in Jacksonville, as he was a member of the board of trustees of the college while serving as pastor of the Congregational church in Quincy.

He was a classmate of Dr. F. S. Hayden at Yale and came to Jacksonville especially to visit his friend of other years. Dr. Dana talked to the students about the earlier days of the college, referring especially to some of the happenings during the presidency of Dr. Edward H. Tanner.

Dr. Dana is now a resident of Exeter, N. H., and is secretary of the board of trustees of Exeter academy. He said that Illinois college has a distinctly high standing among the educational institutions of the east.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES

No admission will be charged. This is a venture in the field of entertainment which deserves the support of the young folks of Jacksonville. All are cordially invited to attend.

In addition to his work as executive secretary of the Church Peace Union, a movement inaugurated by the government, he is also secretary of the League to Enforce Peace of which former President Taft is Secretary. Mr. Atkinson speaks in Chicago on Tuesday and Friday of this week in the interests of his work.

The Mission Study Circle held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. G. Knapp on West College avenue. Studies on Japan and China were introduced by Mrs. E. M. Coe in the absence of Mrs. J. Allerton Palmer. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

This evening the mid-week service at the Congregational church will take the form of a conference the subject being "The Gospel of the Prophets."

The Yopasovi Camp Fire Girls are winning local honors this week by obtaining five memberships for the Red Cross.

AGAIN THE BAD ROADS.

This time it is a sufferer who has to travel the stretch between the end of the hard strip on the Morton highway and the Morton avenue pavement. He says if some one would kindly keep that dragged and otherwise passable he would merit the thanks of a large number of county residents.

AT WESTMINSTER CHURCH

A Sunday school supper was held Tuesday night at Westminster church which proved a very pleasant event. The occasion was planned by W. J. Brady, superintendent and his assistant workers. While it was intended primarily for the pupils of the school, their parents and friends were invited and the occasion was in every way satisfactory. The school is now entering on a new period of interest and activity.

S. campaign during the year 1919. Prof. Lipsky of Iowa University, who is to take Dr. Ames' place on the Illinois college faculty, will begin work about February 1.

MANY NOW JOINING RED CROSS SOCIETY

One Hundred Per Cent Plan Will Enroll Many During the Week—Headquarters Were Opened Yesterday.

Headquarters were opened yesterday in the Knollenberg building for the Red Cross membership drive and Dr. G. H. Kopperl, chairman, reported last night that the number of persons who came in during the day to pay membership dues was very gratifying. Mrs. F. J. Hehl is serving as cashier and Miss Dawson of the Red Cross headquarters will act as her assistant. "There is need of some additional volunteer workers and anyone who is willing to aid in this way is urged to report today at headquarters."

A goodly number of stores and residences have already become entitled to the 100 per cent banners and it is hoped that today still others will be added to the list. Much interest is being shown in various business houses, factories and institutions, and it is the expectation that practically all will be in the 100 per cent class before the actual work of solicitation begins next Monday.

It is very important that those who bring in the information relative to 100 per cent business houses, make certain that the name and address of each person taking membership is correctly given. This will aid greatly in completing the records prior to the beginning of solicitation work next week.

The first member to enroll was P. Bonansinga and the first 100 per cent business firm recorded was that of Rabjohns & Reid, sixteen memberships being taken out. The Jacksonville Courier company had second place of honor, with Muehlhausen Bros. third and J. Herman fourth. The C. C. Phelps Drug Goods company was on the 100 per cent list and so was the Frank Byrns Hat Store. Families early in the registry were Dr. C. B. Powell, Mrs. Engle and J. H. Danskin. The names of other families will be published at a later time. A subscription of $31.96 by the Salem Lutheran church has also been acknowledged.

Notes

One man set an excellent example Tuesday when he came in and subscribed for himself and nine members of his immediate family. If this man's example were followed in a general way the work of the campaign would be reduced to a minimum.

Illinois college is working for a 100 per cent membership and on Thursday an effort will be made to secure the enrollment of every student there. The work is in charge of Dr. J. G. Ames.

Mrs. E. L. Hill is to direct the work at Jacksonville State hospital, and here, too, the campaign is under way. At the School for the Deaf, Supt. White is carrying on the work of solicitation and the interest manifested is gratifying.

STANDARD BEARERS MET

The Standard Bearers of Centenary church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Arthur Haney, president of the society, Monday night. Only a few meetings have been held this season on account of influenza conditions and the program Monday night was of special interest. The Standard Bearers will hold their next meeting Feb. 17, with Miss Florenz Kellers at her home on East State street. A special membership campaign has been planned.

CAR AND BICYCLE

Lloyd Harrison, a carrier for the Courier, while riding a bicycle on South Main street late Tuesday afternoon, was struck by an electric driven by Mrs. J. Weir Elliott.

The lad stopped near the curb and to throw a paper and when he started across the street did not look behind him and rode squarely in front of the electric. Mrs. Elliott was driving slowly on an upgrade and so was able to stop quickly, but not before the car and bicycle collided. Mrs. Elliott and others nearby picked the boy up and were greatly relieved to find he was not injured. The bicycle was somewhat damaged and Mrs. Elliott had it sent to a shop for repairs.

Mrs. Hester M. Capps will leave today for Portland, Ore., to make an extended visit with Miss Alice Capps and Mrs. Ellen Capps Tingle.

Mrs. C. A. Barnes and Felix E. Farrell have returned from St. Louis, where they have been for several days on account of the death and funeral of Mrs. Barnes' mother, Mrs. Sarah Martin.

Two excellent and instructive papers were read: "Shrapnel, Woman's Part in It," by Mrs. Charles ataischak and "Patriotism" by Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson. After the business meeting the afternoon was spent in a social way.

Met With Mrs. U. G. Mason. The Ella Ewing Circle of Central Christian church met with Mrs. U. G. Mason of West State street Tuesday evening with a large attendance. The election of officers for the ensuing year was a feature of the business meeting and resulted as follows:

J. P. ORGANIZATION FAVORS LAW CHANGE

The Illinois Justices association is giving its attention to certain proposed changes in legislation intended to meet the new conditions that passing years have brought. Several of the five local justices of the peace are members of the organization. It is expected that thru the organization work that there will be higher standards of efficiency and more uniform methods in the conduct of affairs relating to the duties of justices and constables.

Another matter in which the association will interest itself is in the changing of fees for different classes of work. Fees now charged are the same as have been in effect for a number of years and which have not been increased as has been done with other court costs.

At the regular meeting of Illini Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F. Tuesday evening there was a large attendance and the affair developed into an enthusiastic booster meeting. There were a number of stirring addresses and plans were formulated for a campaign to increase the membership of the lodge. Seymour district deputy was present and was one of the speakers. At an early meeting committees will be appointed and steps taken to inaugurate an aggressive campaign in which it is hoped to greatly increase the membership of the lodge.

GERMANY WANTS PEACE OF RIGHT AND JUSTICE

Says Former German Ambassador To Great Britain in Statement To Associated Press — Denounces League of Nations.

BERLIN, Jan. 21.—By the Associated Press.—Prince Lichnowsky, former German ambassador to Great Britain today gave the following statement to the Associated Press.

"A peace of right and justice, provided it is not merely to be a phrase behind which a peace of violence conceals itself as a Pax Britannica, can only be such a peace as neither enslaves nor mutilates the conquered and which leaves him the possibility of recuperation of paying his debts and of entering with complete confidence into the peaceful competition of a society of nations. A league of nations which has its roots only in statutes and is not in the hearts of peoples is worthless.

"Just as the conquerors hundreds of years ago treated France forbearing and left in its possession its old borders including even German Alsace, which had earlier been taken away from us just as forcibly as we later took it back, so I believe there will be left to us especially in the east, our borders which are indispensable for us politically and economically.

"Not only ethnography but also geography should be taken into consideration in establishing borders. The Poles and Czechs have no more right to our mixed-language territories, which owe their prosperity alone to the German organization and to the German market than we have to all the German territories outside the empire, including the German part of Alsace-Lorraine.

"Hence a peace of justice would be only such a one as neither boycotts us nor lays upon us intolerable financial burdens which would make up dependents for all time nor one which creates untenable borders and robs us of lands which we require geographically and economically.

"Mr. Wilson and the British statesmen have announced their war aims to be the abolishing of autocracy and militarism and of making good the harm the war has done to Belgium and France. I expect confidently that they will not demonstrate the uprightness of their intentions and that they will not create the impression that a war psychosis now rules there, just as it ruled with us during the war."

INVESTIGATION OF ELECTION FAVORED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—In the Ford-Newberry Michigan senatorial election contest the senate privileges and election committee late today reported a favorable report on Chairman Pomerene's resolution authorizing an immediate investigation and measures to take possession of the ballots. All Democrats present and Senator Kenyon, Republican, support the resolution which will be reported to the senate for its disposition.

Senators Knox of Pennsylvania and Kellogg of Minnesota, Republicans protested against the committee's action declaring it illegal. Senator Knox declined to vote on the Pomerene resolution and Senator Kellogg after lively clashes with the Democratic members left the committee room before the vote was taken. Senator King of Utah, Democrat, said he would oppose immediate hearings by the committee unless it was clearly demonstrated that valuable evidence otherwise would be lost. He agreed with Senators Knox and Kellogg that the present senate was not authorized to settle the contest and that the matter should go over for disposition by the next senate.

In joining the Democrats Senator Kenyon said he always had favored prompt investigation of the Michigan contest in the interest of purity of senate elections.

CLOVER LEAF COMPANY IN ANNUAL MEETING

Reports for the Year Make Very Satisfactory Showing — Territory Being Constantly Enlarged — Name Changed to Include Business of Michigan Life Company Recently Acquired.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Clover Leaf Casualty company was held at the home office Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. There was an unusually large number of the non-resident stockholders present for this business session.

One of the important things done was the approval by the company of the change in name to the Clover Leaf Life & Casualty Co. This change was made because of the acquisition of the Peninsular Guardian Life & Accident Co. of Michigan. Some time since the name of that company was changed to the Clover Leaf Life Insurance Co. Now the business of the Detroit and Jacksonville companies will be fused under one name as indicated. The central offices will be in this city and for the present the business of the casualty department will be transacted here and that of the life department in Detroit.

At the meeting yesterday it was voted to increase the capital stock from $125,000 to $200,000. The reports presented showed the past year one of increasing prosperity, with a total premium income of $442,351.13. This was an increase over the income of 1917 of $102,000. The total sum paid to policy holders in the year was $126,402.23. The total amount paid to policy holders during a period of years has been $620,819.43. The gross assets of the company, as shown by the reports, are $187,952.18.

The Clover Leaf company is now operating in the states of Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, Georgia, Texas, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Directors and Officers

The stockholders at their meeting chose the following directors:

H. C. Wade, Detroit, one year term.

A. E. Rieman, Jacksonville, two year term.

H. Wellington Yates, Detroit, G. H. Lane, Alton; C. A. Goodale, Detroit; H. P. Samuel and R. Y. Rowe, Jacksonville, three year terms.

At the meeting of the directors the following officers were chosen:

President—F. H. Rowe.

Vice President and Auditor—W. C. Bradish.

Ex-Vice President—C. A. Goodale.

Vice President—G. H. Lane.

Vice President—T. J. Kelly.

Secretary—R. Y. Rowe.

Medical Director—Dr. L. H. Clamit.

It is gratifying to people of Jacksonville to note the increasing business of the Clover Leaf company, as it is now reaching out in a large way into the central, western and southern states.

Entertained at Dinner

At 6 o'clock Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rowe entertained a company of twenty-five men at dinner at their home, 1152 West State street. The company had been planned especially in honor of the non-resident officers and stockholders of the company, who were here for the annual meeting. Hood & Larson of the peacock inn served the dinner and as it progressed an excellent musical program was given by the Clover Leaf quartet.

This group of young ladies includes Miss Bernice Woods, reader; Miss Edna Hackett, voice; Miss Helen Sorrells, violin and Miss Mabel Wyatt, piano. Their program included also quartet numbers. A great deal was added to the musical interest of the occasion by the solos of Mr. Howard of Chicago. He was formerly in vaudeville work and is now an agent for the Clover Leaf company. The guests found the hospitality of the Rowe home of a most generous kind.

REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF HOUSE IN CAUCUS

Discuss Administration's Three Year Navy Building Program — Representatives Express Views on Various Questions.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Republican members of the house meeting in party conference tonight discussed the administration's three year navy building program and legislation to come before the next congress but no decision for party action on any question was reached. Representatives Kelly of Michigan and Browning of New Jersey, both members of the naval committee expressed opposite views on the naval program and were questioned by several members as to its details.

Mr. Kelly was understood to have endorsed the administration policy while Mr. Browning was reported to have opposed increase of the navy urging that congress await the decision of the peace conference as to reduction of world armament. Mr. Kelly said that while the administration's policy was for such reduction America's interests otherwise demanded a navy second to none and that no objection should be urged to congress approving a policy for such a navy as this action probably would give the present additional influence at the peace conference. Representative Mondell of Montana, questioned Mr. Kelly regarding the psychology of a declaration of policy saying Great Britain might regard it as a bluff. Mr. Kelly replied the policy would be carried out if reduction of armament were not made a certainty. He added that he believed if American and British navies were on equality in numbers the friendship of the two nations would be cemented even more closely.

Republican Leader Mann in opening the meeting, said the Republicans should be prepared for an extra session if one were called, but urged that they not attempt to force one.

Representative Fordney of Michigan who probably will be chairman of the ways and means committee when the Republicans organize the next house said he believed a revision of interest rates on Liberty Bonds would be necessary. He said non-taxable bonds bearing three and one half per cent interest were selling near par while the taxable issues paying more interest were selling below par.

Representatives Mason of Illinois, Good of Iowa, Garland and Moore of Pennsylvania, Cannon of Illinois, and Green of Iowa, urged speedy return and demobilization of the army. Mr. Garland, who recently returned from Europe said the soldiers were anxious to get home.

ON CHILD LABOR PROFITS COMMENDED

ter in State Journal Lauds lacing of Pomerene Tax on profits of Child Labor—Declares Hunniness Must Be Appressed at Home as Well as Broad.

he following article which appeared in a recent issue of the Register, is printed at the request of the Morgan County Child Welfare Committee, of which Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe is chairman:

urray for the Pomerene tax!
thing since the war began—
of course the ending of it—pleased us so much as this olution placing a ten per cent over and above all other as, on the profits of child labor.

We have suppressed Hun-niness abroad. Now let us suppress it at home. The physical try of another person is no

cruel when it is brought out gradually, thru months and years, than it is when it comes suddenly by bullets and bombs.

And when it cripples the mind as well as the body, it is doubly cruel.

Several years ago congress passed a national child labor law prohibiting interstate commerce in articles made within thirty days of sale by children under fourteen employed in factories, mercantile establishments, tenement house sweatshops, etc.; or by children between 14 and 16
who worked more than eight hours a day; or at night; or by children under 16 working in mines and dangerous places.

At once there was a great outcry from the south. The law was said to be aimed at the canning factories and cotton mills. The southerners tried to evade it by storing their wares for thirty days before selling them; but the government warned them that removal from the factory would be considered equivalent to sale.

Northern States Affected.
But the law hit some of the northern states as well. At that time the legal day's work for children under 16 was eleven hours in New Hampshire as well as in Alabama, and many other states required nine to ten hours.
Alabama demanded but forty days' schooling in a year and excused a child from that if he was poor. In Arkansas a child of 14 might be employed in dangerous or immoral places, and one of 8 might be excused from school if he had to support the family. In Georgia the law said not over ten hours for children in cotton and woolen mills, but the custom was eleven hours, and in a canning factory it might be any number of hours, from daylight till dark.
And in that state a lad of 12 who was an orphan or the support of a widowed mother might work in factory, mill, place of amusement, or an immoral place, with no requirements or protection whatever save that, even though he became careless or lazy in that weary eleventh or twelfth hour,
his employer might not inflict corporal punishment. At fourteen and a half years a Georgia boy might do any kind of day or night work except night messenger work, least drowsiness should render him careless with the telegrams.

In Rhode Island a child of 14
had to work ten hours in manufacture, mercantile or mechanical establishment. In South Carolina it was ten or not to exceed eleven hours a day for a child between 12 and 16. Texas

made no conditions as to hours, kind of work, or night work, but did recently require that children should attend school sixty days in 1917, eighty days in 1918, and one hundred days in 1919, and thereafter, "where there is school for that length of time." In Virginia ten hours was the day's work for all above 13. In Delaware a child under 12 could be employed in canning factories;
and the eight-hour day is ignored
in all the canneries.

Employers Ignored Law.

While the national law was still in force many employers paid no attention to it. Investigation showed nearly 1,100 children between 14 and 16 working in factories more than eight hours a day, or at night. The southern states were the chief objectors to the law, and in June, 1918, they caused it to be declared unconstitutional, as interfering with state rights (the right of a state to abuse the children). Since that time twenty-four states have returned to nine, ten and eleven hours. Three hundred and ninety-two factories have employed children under 14, and thirteen mines have employed children under 16. In North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia the eleven hour day is general. And these are the states that are opposing the 10 per cent tax on the profits of child labor.

In none of these states are the laws drastic enough to protect the health of the children. Nearly all of them make 14 the age
at which a boy or a girl may do the work of an adult, with the exception of night work and certain kinds of dangerous work. If a child has his growth at 14 years he has grown so rapidly that he is "soft," and eleven to fifteen instead of eleven to fifteen in-ferable, impairs his physique. To require a girl of 14 to stand for eight hours in mercantile or manufacturing establishment is simple Hunniness. Eight hours is too long for any undeveloped person to work in a factory. Eight hours for the growing child in the dust of cotton or woolen mills or the hot steam of the canneries means the seeds of consumption.
And what better for the victim is this slow permeation of tuberculosis germs than the direct inoculation of the German prisons?

To Protect Children.

But the factory men profess to misunderstand the efforts to protect children from overwork at a tender age. They say: "No sixteen-year-olds who have never worked for me. I wouldn't have them." Neither we. All children should be taught to work.
Every healthy child of six should have some small part in the family duties; and as part should increase as he advances from childhood toward youth. Between 14 and 16 the waking hours
should have fewer uneducated study, work and recreation. Otherwise he is not being well schooled. No child, rich or poor, should be permitted to leave school even at 16 unless he knows how to earn an honest dollar. Then we should have fewer uneducated,
gentlemanly burglars and holdup men. Then when we enrolled another army we should not find two out of every three registrants physically defective. Then we should not find among those accepted 150,000 (if my mem-

WEAKNESS REMAINS LONG AFTER Influenza

Reports Show That Strength
Energy and Ambition Return Very Slowly to Grippe Patients.

After an attack of influenza, doctors advise that nature be assisted in its building-up process by the use of a good tonic—so that will not only put strength and endurance into the body, but will also help to build up and strengthen the run-down cells of the brain.
One of the most highly recommended remedies to put energy into both body and brain is Bioferen—your physician knows the formula—it is printed below.
There's iron in Bio-feren—the kind of iron that makes red blood corpuscles and creates vigor.
There's lecithin also; probably the best brain invigorator known to science. Then there is good old reliable gentian, that brings back your lagging appetite.

There are other ingredients
that help to promote good health, as you can see by reading this formula, not forgetting kolo, that great agent that puts the power of endurance into the weak people.

Taken altogether Bio-feren is a splendid active tonic that will greatly help any weak, run-down
person to regain normal strength, energy, ambition and endurance.

Bio-feren is sold by all reliable druggists and is inexpensive. For weakness after influenza patients are advised to take two tablets
after each meal, and one at bedtime—seven a day, until health, strength and vigor are fully restored.

It will not fail to help you and if for any reason you are dissatisfied with results your druggist is authorized to return your money upon request—without any red-tape of any kind.

Note to physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin;
Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron
Peptonate, Manganese Peptonate;
Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gen-
tian; Phenolphthalein; Olearin sign their own names. Shame on the country that can raise twenty-four billions in one year, and can obtain seventeen billions by liberty bonds, and can loan eight billions, one hundred and ninety-six million more to its allies, and yet permits a child of 12 to work eleven to fifteen hours in a canning factory, and an infant of eight to leave school to support a widowed mother or an invalid

father.

By all means let us have the Pomerene tax. And then let us have in our schools the training to work as well as to think, for which the friends of the children and the race are calling.

ILLINOI LODGE I. O. O. F. ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Will Be Held Tuesday Evening
January 28—Program Followed by Oyster Supper.

At a recent meeting of Illinoi Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., the evening of Tuesday January 28 was selected as the date for the annual roll call of the order.

A committee was appointed consisting of W. J. Brown chairman, W. H. Cocking, Walter L.
Brown, C. O. Bayne and E. M.
Dunlap to make the necessary arrangements for the event.

The committee has already sent out invitations to all members. Every member is expected to be present and respond to his name or send a letter of greetings. However, it is desired that those members residing in the city and vicinity be present.

An interesting program has been prepared which will be in-terpersed with talks by members and returned soldiers and sailors. The program will be followed by an old fashioned oyster supper.

ADVANCED STUDENTS IN RECITAL AT ACADEMY HALL

Representatives from the piano, voice and violin departments of the conservatory appeared in recital last evening in Recital Hall.
A varied program was presented,
of excellent length, and received by a large audience with every evidence of approval. There was a freedom from stiffness and awkwardness that was quite remarkable in such a recital, the students acquitting themselves with dignity and apparent self-possession. There was little of the very natural nervousness that is evident on most such occasions, and it was to be noted that every number had been carefully prepared, giving the hearers a gratifying feeling of security. This "preparedness," added to the genuine aptitude shown by each performer, made the whole program
a real musical pleasure. The accompaniments of Mrs. Keating and Mr. Kritch were satisfying, as usual, and Mr. Munger added much to the last number by his playing of the second piano part.

The following is the program in full:

Scherzino, op. 79 for two pianos.
(Schuetz)—Cornelia Larue,
Mr. Munger.
A Winter Song (Rogers). Absence (Bassett), Yesterday and Today (Spross)—Mary Elizabeth Pribe.
Canzonetta, for piano (Schuetz).
Toccata (Chaminade)—Martha Priest.
Romance in F major, for violin (Beethoven)—Elmer Capps.
Introduction and Rondo Capriccio-
so, for piano (Mendelssohn)—
Julia Gilman.
Duet from "Lakme" (Delles)— Mabel Forrester, Lorine De-
weese.

The Whippoorwill [piano] (Masson). Gavotte in D minor (Liebling)—Antoinette Gou-
vela.
La Colombia [The Dove] (Kurt Schindler). Amy's Song, from
"Shanewis" (Cadman)—Ethel
Carter.

Chevaleresque, for piano (Godard)—Beatrice Dye.
Fantasy in C minor (Mozart)— Mary Alexander. (Second piano part by Greig, Mr. Munger).
Accompanists: Mrs. Robert E.
Keating, Mr. Kritch.

VALUABLE FOWLS

W. E. Kinnett of Orleans bought yesterday of Alfred Swinger 106 capons at $2.28 each making the comfortable sum of $241.68. This shows what a little intelligence and progressiveness will accomplish. Prof. Gilbert fully explained the art of caponizing when he was here at the chautauqua last fall and it would seem as if almost any person of ordinary ability could do it with the outfit which costs $3.50 as the writer remembers.

Mrs. Frank Hardin of Carbondale was among those from out of town having business in Jacksonville Tuesday.

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations into which they have never before been called.—In Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railways, and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers and Elevator Girls. Undoubtedly thousands of others have longed to serve in this way, but because of female ailments, which had fastened upon them, were not able to do so. Women in this condition should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and find health and strength as thousands of others have so done.—Adv.

PLANS INSTRUCTIONS FOR SMALL TOWN FIREMEN

Chicago, Jan. 20.—A plan for the smaller cities of the state to send their firemen to Chicago in relays for a course of two months instruction by expert fire fighters in the Chicago department was decided upon here today at a conference between State Fire Marshal John J. Gamber, H. M. Sharp, the Underwriters' Loss Prevention Bureau, Fire Attorney John R. McCabe and Fire Marshal Thomas O'Connor. It is believed the plan will result in greater efficiency and closer cooperation between all the state and city fire fighting agencies.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Successful Saturday Afternoon Meetings—We have the following reply from Advisor D. O. Thompson concerning winter meetings: "In answer to your request of January 11th relative to the value of Saturday afternoon meetings, I will say that I have found during the four winters since I have been in the work, in McLean county that the Saturday afternoon meetings of Farm Bureau members is a very effective method of building up an association spirit. People come to Bloomington to trade on Saturday afternoon. Accordingly, this is our best time for a general meeting. We arrange our programs to start at 1:30 and continue for an hour and a half. The meetings are of an informal nature. I usually lead in the discussion of some definite subject and talk about three-quarters of an hour. The remaining time is given over to informal discussions that bring out the experiences of our members. Without the informal discussion, the meeting is rather ineffective.

Our attendance ranges from 50 to 150 people and is usually very representative of the entire county. Every Saturday brings in some new men. On the other hand, some of the members attend every meeting. In addition to the usual reading announcement, we use display advertising space to announce these meetings. We announce them in the Thursday and Friday mornings paper which has a large circulation going to practically every member of the association. During the following week complete reports of the subjects discussed are published in this paper. This creates considerable interest in the meeting and the message goes to a great many people besides those who were present at the meeting.

Value of a Luncheon—In connection with the annual farm bureau meeting has been demonstrated by the success of this plan in Lee and Macon counties. The day on which Mr. Griffith held his annual meeting was one of inclement weather, yet a luncheon furnished by the Soil Association attracted more than a hundred farmers and their wives and the afternoon meeting was attended by nearly three hundred members. Mr. Smith of Macon county reports that about two hundred farmers lunched together on the date of the annual meeting and considerable interest was manifested in the program of the afternoon at which the following subjects were discussed: "The Farm Bureau as Viewed by the Banker," "The Farm Bureau as Viewed by the Manufacturer," "The Organized Effort." Each seemed to be one of the best drawing cards for farmers' meetings.

Large Shipment of Seed Forwarded to Greece—"A shipment of three tons of white blossom sweet clover has been scarified, inoculated and forwarded by the Agronomy Department to the American Red Cross Commission in Greece. This seed will be used in attempts to improve the soils of Greece and other Balkan states. It will constitute a part of the agricultural work, which the commission is undertaking along with encouragement in the use of limestone under the direction of Professor C. G. Hopkins of this university.

Keeping the Boys on the Farm—"At the close of a lengthy discussion of what the Saline County Farm Bureau could do the coming year, Clyde Gates, a lad of about 18 years, asked if he might unload a few thoughts he had on his mind. The request was granted. Mr. Gates and he gave the viewpoint held by boys of his generation regarding the possibilities of the Farm Bureau. He told why boys become dissatisfied and leave the farm. After graduating from high school, he had decided to study law, but because of the influence of Mr. Price and the Saline County Farm Bureau, he said: "I have changed my plans and will stick to the farm. I am sure Mr. Gates' father did not realize that his Farm Bureau membership fee would bring such good results. We cannot always measure the Farm Bureau in dollars and cents.

Income Tax Rulings—"The income tax bill which was introduced last Friday carried six hundred amendments. It will probably be two weeks at least before any definite action is taken. We will forward information to farm advisers just as soon as any definite rulings are received. H. M. Case, Sangamon County Executive Committee and Agricultural Council recently passed resolutions favoring the following: "A Pure Seed Law," "Permanent Protection of Quails," "Labeling of All Feeds," "Giving Guaranteed Percentage of Protein," "Carbohydrate, Fat and Crude Fibre," "Reimbursement of Farmers for Slaughter of Tubercular Cattle," "Supervision of Commission Men Buying and Selling Perishable Farm Products," "A More Stringent Blue-Sky Law," "Asking that the State Furnish a Hundred Dollars a Month for the County Adviser's Salary."

Nuxated Iron Helps Make Red Blood

The Kind That Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Force, Strength, and Courage Into the Veins of Men

Watch the People You Meet On the Street—You Can Tell Those Who Have Plenty of Iron in Their Blood—Strong, Healthy, Vigorous Folks

Get this Out

Sole Statement of the Composition of the FORMULA of Nuxated Iron

It is conservatively estimated that there are more than 100 million people in the world who have not had a single drop of Nuxated Iron in their system. It is especially recommended to build up the nervous system and the body in general, as glycerophosphates are said to contain phosphorus in that particular state of combination in which it is found in the brain and brain cells of men.

As will be seen from the above, Nuxated Iron is not a secret remedy, but one which is known to druggists everywhere. Unlike other inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, does not blacken the tongue, does not cause constipation, and is not recommended for use in cases of indigestion, but only as a tonic, strengthening and blood builder. (In case of illness always consult your family physician and be guided by his advice.) If in doubt as to whether you need a tonic, ask your doctor, as do not wish to sell you Nuxated Iron if it does not help you, notify us and we will turn your money. It is sold by all druggists.

Under such circumstances the temptation to adulteration and substitution by unscrupulous persons, lawyers and the public is hereby warned to be careful and see a bottle is plainly labeled "Nuxated Iron" and the Health Laboratories, Paris, France and Detroit, U. S. A., as this is the only genuine article. If you have taken other forms of iron without success, this does not mean Nuxated Iron will not help you.

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE—Nuxated Iron is not a secret remedy, but one which is known to druggists everywhere. Unlike other inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, does not blacken the tongue, does not cause constipation, and is not recommended for use in cases of indigestion, but only as a tonic, strengthening and blood builder. If in doubt as to whether you need a tonic, ask your doctor, as do not wish to sell you Nuxated Iron if it does not help you, notify us and we will turn your money. It is sold by all druggists.

Each dose of two tablets of Nuxated Iron contains one and one-half grains of organic iron in the form of iron peptonate, of a special specific standard, which in our opinion possesses superior qualities to any other known form of iron. By using other makes of iron peptonate you could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost to us, and by using metallic iron you could have accomplished the same thing at less than one-eighth the cost, but by using Nuxated Iron we must have more than 100 million people in the world who have not had a single drop of Nuxated Iron in their system.

Under such circumstances the temptation to adulteration and substitution by unscrupulous persons, lawyers and the public is hereby warned to be careful and see a bottle is plainly labeled "Nuxated Iron" and the Health Laboratories, Paris, France and Detroit, U. S. A., as this is the only genuine article. If you have taken other forms of iron without success, this does not mean Nuxated Iron will not help you.

Can You
Equal It

We try to inform our many friends what they can use to increase their prosperity, as we know their prosperity is the foundation of our success. To obtain big crops is what the farmer wants. To obtain these crops he must use all the information given him and have proper tools. One of the most essential tools is a

HUMMER MANURE SPREADER

And, of all the manure spreaders on the market the Hummer has no equal. Why? The main frame which is the foundation is entirely of high carbon channel steel—no wood to rot out as in nearly every other make. All working parts mounted on this steel frame, which assures you of proper alignment of these parts, which in turn insures light draft. Heavy channel steel cross members are securely bolted to the side sills with steel brackets, under which is a heavy truss rod. Two brace rods extend diagonally across the frame connecting the side sills, thus eliminating any chance of a twisting frame and thereby throw the working parts out of alignment. The front end is rigidly braced and connected to the channel steel sides by a heavy cross member and trussed together with a heavy reinforced corner bracket. We claim perfection in construction for the Hummer. For convenience of the operator it is low down—easy to load. The arch of the front end allows you to turn short and can be turned easily in its own length. The channel steel sills are bent upward at front end and connected to a heavy steel cross member. Fifth wheel extra large in diameter and equipped with hard oil cup. The track of both rear and front wheels is such that you can successfully top-dress small growing corn. Top-dressing of any crop has proven most valuable. A light sprinkle of manure on your wheat, and also, your meadow, will pay big interest on the investment.

For a Quicker Start

When you start your car, don't try to do it all with the starter button, for that only wastes current. Prime your cylinders and then:

1. Set your controls right, with retarded spark and throttle slightly open.
2. Use your choke to get a richer mixture and quicker explosion.
3. Throw out the clutch and take some of the load off the engine.
4. Then—and not till then—step on the button, and away she'll go.

There are lots of other little wrinkles that prolong your battery's life and make car operation easier. Drop in and let us post you on them.

FORMER RESIDENT WILL DELIVER ADDRESS

Judge M. D. Purdy of Minneapolis will deliver Roosevelt Memorial Address at White Hall—Appointed Assistant Attorney General by Late President—White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, Jan. 21.—An invitation has been extended to Judge Milton D. Purdy of Minneapolis, to deliver the address at the Roosevelt Memorial services on February 9th in White Hall. Judge Purdy is the individual who was given the title of "official trust buster" in the Roosevelt administration when he held the position of assistant to the attorney general of the United States.

Purdy's rise to prominence was phenomenal. He is a son of the late M. C. Purdy, a pioneer pottery manufacturer of White Hall. On graduating from the White Hall school, he taught in rural schools and in the White Hall school. Disappointed in his ambitions to become superintendent of the White Hall schools, he left for Minneapolis and studied law, becoming city attorney and later U. S. district attorney.

Honored by Roosevelt
In the latter capacity he handled the Northern Securities Company dissolution case for the government with such ability as to attract the attention of President Roosevelt, who summoned Purdy to Washington over the protest of the Minnesota senators and made him assistant to the attorney general. Purdy's vigorous prosecution of the Standard Oil, American Tobacco and other important cases, together with his plans of receiverships for trusts and his cleaning up irregularities in the postoffice department, of which the Rathbone case in Cuba is a memorable example, made him prominent, but with the ascendancy of Taft to the presidency, Purdy retired to the practice of law at Minneapolis, later being appointed a federal judge.

Judge Purdy visited White Hall very little since the death of his father, about six years ago. The invitation for him to participate in the Roosevelt memorial has been extended by a lifelong and close friend, H. S. Avery.

News Notes
Rev. Leo Howard left Monday for Chicago to attend the Methodist centennial missionary convention, which is to give impetus to this great Methodist movement to be conducted during the present year.

T. N. Rose has resumed duty as cashier at the People's Bank on part time, he putting in two hours each morning and again about the same length of time in the afternoon. Mr. Rose has been ill for a long time, and his last hospital experience rendered doubt as to his ever being able to return to work of any kind.

Richard White has been in a hospital in St. Louis for two weeks and has undergone two operations for cancer. What the outcome will be can not be foretold at this time.

Postmaster J. E. Wyatt has been named as delegate from Greene county to the convention of the League to Enforce Peace, which is to be held in Chicago in February.

E. C. Pearce has been appointed a traveling auditor for the federal shipping board, the work taking him through southern states and it is doubtful if he will accept.

L. S. Banks was over from Kansas City Sunday to look after farm interests in the Hillview Drainage and Levee District. Mr. Banks is ticket agent in the Kansas City union station. He is very much gratified with his farming venture in Greene county.

Dr. A. E. Meisenbach and son Edward were up from St. Louis Sunday.

Misses Edith and Ethel Culbertson and Mildred Fair went to Jacksonville Monday to receive instruction in the application of the new telephone toll rates, they being connected with the local office of the Illinois Telephone company.

Lyman Prindle, son of the late L. T. Prindle, member of a once prominent White Hall family, is an express messenger on the C. & A. between Roodhouse and Chicago, and lays over at Roodhouse every fourth night.

R. B. Pearce called on his uncle, Capt. J. M. Swales, in Jacksonville Monday.

Mrs. D. N. Henderson has decided that Illinois climate is good enough, and has given up the idea of going to California to spend the season at the winter home of her son, Major J. E. Lane, of Lewistown, Montana.

The usual method of sealing a storage battery of this type is to pour over the entire top of it a bulky layer of sealing compound. This compound requires so much space that, without its use, the battery plates could be made considerably larger. This is just what has been accomplished in designing and building the Cincinnati Starting Battery. The use of bulky sealing compound has been done away with entirely and the single sealing arrangement shown in the sectional illustration above is used. This has made possible the increasing of the size of the battery plates with a consequent increase in the power of the battery. The larger size battery plates used in the manufacture of this battery mean a higher average voltage under all rates of discharge and a "snappier" action of your starter.
